The _____ Concert Association continues its' 2019-2020 season with the upcoming performance by Canadian fiddler and step dancer April Verch and her Band. The concert will be on _____(day/date) at ___ pm and held in the _____.(auditorium)

For over two decades, fiddler, singer-songwriter and step dancer April Verch has been recording and captivating listeners worldwide. The Ottawa Valley native has garnered praise from music's heavy hitters including NPR and Rolling Stone for her fresh and feisty approach to deep North Americana. Verch's signature sound blends regional Canadian, American old-time, bluegrass, country and Americana, resulting in a well-rounded tour-de-force of traditional sounds.

On stage is where her diverse repertoire comes to life with a presence that is versatile, robust and masterfully executed. Her delicate voice, energetic footwork and stunning playing have brought her to stages across the globe, wowing audiences with her jaw-dropping performance.

Verch won't be the one to tell you about her championship titles, nominations and awards, or the fact she represented the Canadian fiddle tradition to the world at the 2010 Olympic Games in Vancouver.

Even as she plays with the tradition she inherited, Verch keeps the community-fired celebratory side of her music at the forefront and honing a keen awareness of how to engage contemporary fans. Just as modern Bluegrass has Alison Krauss, the Ottawa Valley has April Verch and her band which features Cody Walters on bass and banjo and Alex Rubin on guitar and mandolin. Be sure not to miss this show as you will hear and see the music of Willie Nelson, Neil Young, Bob Wills, Elvis Presley and an array traditional celtic and bluegrass favorites.
