

Copper Street Brass - Blurb

Copper Street Brass is a Minneapolis-based sextet composed of two trumpets, trombone, tuba, French horn and percussion with several members doubling on keyboard, percussion, guitars and electric instruments. Copper Street Brass presents a variety of music in bold innovative ways with a friendly and charming stage presence. "That '70s Show" cleverly features music from the 1770s, 1870s, and 1970s from classical and opera, jazz and folk, to rock and disco. Their eclectic performance will feature something for everyone.